2,000 KIDDIES FROM COUNTY ENJOY RODEO

More than 2,000 school children from Adams County were escorted by state police to the annual State Police Rodeo at Hershey Friday afternoon, and only one "got lost."

The officers said the trip to and from Hershey was eventful and all youngsters returned home safely. The one exception was a Gettysburg child who decided to visit his grandparents enroute home.

Police, called by a frantic mother, checked and found the youngster with his grandparents watching "Dragnet." They asked the youngster to inform his mother the next time he goes visiting instead of "going straight home."

State Policemen James A. Treas and George Ackerson, who were in charge of the convoy of 38 buses, said the biggest problems encountered were "traffic jams" when the buses arrived home and parents descended in cars upon the unloading areas.

Many Going Tonight
Public and parochial youngsters, 4th, 5th and 6th graders, made the trip. The buses ranged in capacity from 48 to 60 and the youngsters were accompanied by parents and teachers who found themselves constantly busy in keeping track of the children as they wandered about the stadium at Hershey in search of food and drink while watching the more than two hour long state police rodeo.

Basic unit of the convoy were eight buses which left from Lincoln School here Friday shortly after noon. Other buses from throughout the county met the convoy near York Springs, and at Dillsburg, for the journey via the Turnpike part of the way.

Friday night a number of adult countians and other children witnessed the rodeo at Hershey and to night more countians will attend the display of horsemanship, trick motorcycle riding, trained dogs and other acts in the rodeo.

Jet Trainer Crashes Near Harrisburg

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—A T33 Lockheed jet trainer crashed in a cantaloupe patch on a farm near the Pennsylvania Turnpike early today while trying to land at Harrisburg state airport. Two Air Force officers were killed.

Officials at the nearby U.S. Air Force material depot at Middletown said the plane was en route from Bryan Air Force Base, Tex., to Andrews Air Force Base, Washington, D.C. The plane was unable to land at Andrews because of electrical storms.

The names of the dead fliers were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

Wesley Wheeler, a control tower operator at Harrisburg airport, said there was no radio contact with the plane before it attempted to land. He said the plane came in too high to land and was banking around the field, apparently for another try, when it crashed on the farm of Charles Grissinger, about 75 yards from the West Shore interchange of the turnpike.

LOCAL APPEALS ON TAX LEVIES DUE NEXT WEEK

The Adams County commissioners, who have completed hearing 203 of the approximately 600 appeals from the new assessment, today readied their program for a continuation of appeals next week, with residents of Gettysburg among those to be heard during the week.

Of the 203 heard so far, slightly more than 50 have resulted in adjustments of the assessments. Of that number less than 20 were found to have been clerical errors or errors made when the assessors reported on the properties. One hearing resulted in the assessment being raised—but the owner had appealed on two properties and on the other the commissioners lowered the amount of assessment and as a result the owner "came out even."

The six appeals from Fairfield are scheduled to be the first heard Monday morning, with the first case to be considered at 8 o'clock. Following Fairfield, the eight appellants from Freedom Twp. will be heard, followed by the three from Germany Twp.

The commissioners expect to hear ten of the 22 appeals from Gettysburg, First Ward, on Monday afternoon and the other 12 on Tuesday morning. The eight appeals from the Second Ward and nine of the 17 from Third Ward will be heard Tuesday. Completion of the appeals from Third Ward is scheduled for Wednesday morning.

Man Is Jailed On Desertion Charge

Roderick Whiles, of Langhorne, is in the county jail charged with desertion and non-support by his wife, Eva M. Whiles, of Aspers. He is being held in default of $500 bail, and will appear before Desertion and Non-support Court on Monday.

Whiles was apprehended by Bucks Co. officials, and returned to Gettysburg Thursday by Constable Leo Riley and Sheriff Dorsey J. Schultz. The warrant for his arrest was issued by Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder, on information of Mrs. Whiles.

BUY KING FARM

Paul Spicer, Gettysburg R. 4, this morning purchased the property of George and Catherine Mae King, Straban Twp., along the Hunters-town-Schriver's Corner road. The four room concrete block bungalow brought $4,550 at the sale conducted by Sheriff Dorsey J. Schultz from the courthouse steps.

Court Orders Patinos To Return Baby To Her Dad

PARIS (AP)—A Paris court today ordered the tin millionaire Patino family to return 4-month-old Isabela Goldsmith to her father—James Goldsmith, son of a wealthy British hotel owner.

The judgment was handed down by Jean Ausset, president of the tribunal of the Seine Department. He said it was effective at once. Little Isabela is the granddaughter of Mrs. Antenor Patino, who has been holding the child at an undisclosed spot.

Isabela was born prematurely. Her 18-year-old mother of the same name died of a brain tumor last May 14. The death was a tragic aftermath to the runaway romance of 20-year-old James and Isabela Patino the previous December.

The custody fight flared into the open on Wednesday when James complained to police that his daughter, suffering from anoxemia (lack of oxygen in the blood), had been "kidnaped."

The father said his daughter and her grandmother Patino disappeared from the Versailles hotel where he had left Isabela while he went on a business trip to Africa. He filed a charge of "nonrepresentation of child."

But Mrs. Patino had already petitioned the civil court for permanent custody of the granddaughter on the ground James could not care for her suitably. Mrs. Patino said the child needed "a feminine presence."

Yesterday Judge Ausset personally inspected the luxurious apartment Goldsmith obtained for the child. Today, apparently satisfied with the arrangements, he ruled that Goldsmith should have the baby.

BELMONT FOLK READINGEST IN ADAMS COUNTY

Adams County school children borrowed 138,481 books from the Free Library's Bookmobile during 1953-4, an all-time record high according to figures released by the county librarian, Mrs. Mary S. Wilson. This was an average of 23.5 books read per child.

The largest number of books to be borrowed by a single school from the Bookmobile was the 13,171 borrowed by the Littlestown Elementary School where the average was 22.8 books per pupils. New Oxford Elementary students borrowed the second largest number, 9,824, an average of 41 per student. The parochial school in McSherrystown came in third with 8,300, and average of 15.7.

The largest average number of books per student was borrowed by the Belmont School, Gettysburg Jointure. These industrious pupils took 93 books apiece, says the library. Clearview, in the Lower Adams Jointure, was second, with an 89 average. Hampton School, in Conewago Jointure, took third place with an 84.

High Schools Lower

The dubious honor of having the lowest number of books borrowed per student went to Littlestown High School. These young men and women took only 1.6 books per person. High school averages generally were low but supplement school library loans.

Schools with per pupil reading averages of 50 books or above include in addition to the top records already listed: Abbottstown, 54; Pitzer's, 50; Green Ridge in Lower Adams Jointure and the Midway school with an average of 81 books per pupil.

The year's figures represent an increase not only in the average number of books read per pupil but a big jump in total circulation in the schools. During the 1952-3 school year the average per pupil was 20.5 books and the total circulation figure was 112,184. The highest reading rate for that year was turned in by a Fairfield elementary unit where the boys and girls averaged 88 books each.

Here And There News Collected At Random

Ralph E. Arnold, a staunch and enthusiastic Gettysburg booster, has frequently discussed with your reporter tourist travel and tourist business in Gettysburg. Recently he was asked to put his thoughts and suggestions in writing. He finally did so. We wholeheartedly endorse his suggestions and happily present them in full as follows:

In The Gettysburg Times during the past year I have read much about concern for greater tourist travel through Gettysburg—and of the many fine efforts to boost it. Things such as the current feature in Colliers, the recent Associated Press page, the Buick Magazine article in July and other national releases are unquestionably of great value, as are the local signs presently going up.

Even our great President is doing his bit to keep Gettysburg before the nation. Possibly he is, in reality, doing more than all other factors combined since the Battle itself and the Great Address back in 1863.

However, there is one medium for promotion which is, apparently, given little consideration, constructively, and I have never understood why. I refer, of course, to the Pennsylvania Turnpike which, let's face it, is here to stay. Since it jock away, and now carries, most of the East-West traffic which Gettysburg at one time received automatically on Route 30, I wonder why it should not be utilized more effectively as an advertising medium. Getting the one interchange named after Gettysburg was a great step forward and a master stroke by those who accomplished it, to be sure, but is it enough? I have always doubted it and official Gettysburg tourist figures seem to support the doubts, with 1953 Battlefield travel reported not only below 1951 and 1952—but even below 1929.

Each time I travel the Turnpike I marvel at the free advertising somebody must have secured from the Turnpike Commission for the resorts at Bedford. The official exit sign at Bedford reads, "Bedford and Bedford Springs Resorts." Now, if the Commission is willing to promote "resorts" shouldn't it also be willing and given an opportunity to do as much or more, for world-famous Gettysburg National Military Park? Not just as a courtesy to Gettysburg but as a real service to its motoring public.

Why, for example, should not good solid "plugs" for Gettysburg Battlefield be included at the Gettysburg, Carlisle, and even Breezewood Interchanges? The first two are obviously naturals and, also, approaching Breezewood from the west the Battlefield could quite appropriately be mentioned since that is the logical exit to Gettysburg, during good weather, for traffic from the west.

Then, beyond what the Commission could, and possibly would, do on its own exit signs why should not large spectacular billboards be erected a mile, or maybe two, from these exits? These would give ample notice to the traveler that he is cruising along very close to famous

LARGEST CROWD OF FARMERS AND CUSTOMERS AT MARKET TODAY

The Farmers Market this morning had the largest attendance in months, both customers and farmers, and displayed the largest selection of fruits and vegetables of the summer. The prices of some items also dropped.

Eggs dropped from 55 cents for large to 50 cents, with mediums 40 cents a dozen. Jumbos, the extra large eggs, were 55 a dozen. Some few stands dropped a few cents below the 50-cent "standard" rate for large eggs.

Peach price variations extended across a broader field, with a slight decline generally noted. Some Hale were $1 a half bushel, while some peaches of higher quality remained at the $1.50 a half bushel price. Large quantities of the fruit were available—in line with all other items, all of which seemed to be present in great quantity and to be sold in much larger quantities than usual.

Other Prices
Pears—Bartletts, Seckles and practically every other variety—were in abundance, with more mart attendants displaying pears today than at any time this season. Prices were down about a nickel throughout, to 20 cents a quart box and generally, 35 a quarter peck, 55 a half peck.

Tomatoes generally were 20 cents a quart box, $1.25 to $1.50 a half bushel, with quality the basis for price variations.

Quinces were 25 cents a box. Plums were fairly plentiful at 20 to 25 cents a box; apples continued at steady prices, 20 to 30 cents a quart box, 50 to 55 cents a half peck.

"Roastin' ears" generally advanced slightly in price. Where last week the price ranged from 25 to 35 cents a dozen, this week the price was generally 30 to 35 cents a dozen.

Lima beans declined in price, with the general price now 30 cents a pint, 60 cents a quart. Last week the variations were 30 to 40 cents a pint, 70 to 75 cents a quart.

Squash continued at five and ten cents apiece; eggplants were ten cents apiece; cabbage, five cents a pound; carrots, 10 cents a bunch; crabapples, 35 cents a quarter peck, 65 cents a half peck; butter, 70 cents a pound.

Chicken continued at 55 cents a pound; peppers were five cents apiece, three for 10 cents; beets were 10 cents a bunch, cucumbers were two for five cents to ten cents apiece depending on size. Cream was 40 cents a pint; cup cheese, 25 cents a pint; cottage cheese, 20 cents a pint; potato salad, 25 cents a pint. Bread, rolls, pies, and cakes were in an abundance with prices depending on size.

Gettysburg and should consider turning at the next exit. Possibly just three such signs could be most effective and divert traffic into Gettysburg which would, otherwise, whiz right on past quite oblivious to the proximity of a great National Shrine.

The three spots would be:
1. East of Gettysburg Interchange.
2. West of Carlisle Interchange.
3. West of Breezewood Interchange (featuring alternate route to Gettysburg).

These would likely have to be erected with Gettysburg funds and off the Turnpike right-of-way, though fully visible from it. Similar billboards are now seen along the Turnpike featuring hotel and motel accommodations so nothing unprecedented would be involved.

On the other hand, the attraction is of sufficiently great importance to the Turnpike motorists to warrant a good try to have the Turnpike Commission erect such signs themselves, or, failing that, at least permit their erection on right-of-way land.

It seems to me that possibly such use of the Turnpike could be surprisingly productive. That is where the people are, and the message would reach them, by the hundreds of thousands—right at the strategic moment, when they are not already headed into Gettysburg, but still close enough to easily do it. It could be just the timely reminder to supplement and tie in with the fine Gettysburg notices they are seeing nationally—and should continue to see even more in the future.

Visiting Gettysburg is truly one of the most awe-inspiring and patriotic experiences available in our great country. It is, actually, the whole Civil War and Abraham Lincoln made real.

Should not every motorist crossing Pennsylvania be invited to have that experience—and forever thereafter be grateful?

FIREMEN WILL INSTALL RADIO IN EMMITSBURG

Twenty-eight members of the Vigilant Hose Company, Emmitsburg, were present for the monthly meeting Tuesday evening in the Fire Hall. President Herbert Rodgers presided.

It was announced that the Civil Defense Department will equip the fire truck with two-way radio sometime within the next 30 days and the fire company is considering equipping the old truck with the same kind of equipment at their own expense. This equipment will prove very valuable not only in the process of fighting fires but would also prove very valuable in case of an enemy attack when the fire company would be pressed into action, firemen said.

Both the national and state flags were displayed at this meeting. The flags were ordered quite some time ago but have just been received.

A complete report was given on the fire convention held at the University of Maryland. This report was made by Assistant Fire Chief Sterling White who attended the meeting.

Plans for the shooting match to be held this Sunday were cancelled due to the playoff baseball game to be played here. The match will take place on October 10 at 1 p.m. Franklin Carty will be in charge of the match.

Lions Meet

The Emmitsburg Lions Club met Monday evening in the Lutheran Parish Hall. There were 21 members and guests present. The meeting was presided over by the President Ralph McDonnell.

Main business of the evening was the final planning for the Sixth Annual Horse Show that will be held at the Emmitsburg Show grounds on Sunday, September 26. The general chairman for the show is Robert Daugherty. Mr. Daugherty has as his guest Albin Duvall, Westminster, who will be steward for the show this year. Mr. Duvall held a special meeting with the show committee after the regular meeting and many new plans were devised for this year.

C. A. Elder thanked the club in behalf of St. Euphemia's school for the club's offer to have the school ground stoned. Later plans were made by the school and the playground was black topped, making the donation of the stone unnecessary.

Captain Philip Schaepe reported on the progress of the Lions' 25th Charter Night celebration which will

Grange In Session

The regular bi-monthly meeting of the Emmitsburg Grange was held Wednesday evening in the Emmitsburg High School. There were 23 members present and the meeting was conducted by Master Edgar Emerick.

A committee from the Grange investigated conditions regarding the straightening of a curve on the new road that is being constructed connecting the Tom's Creek Bridge with the Keysville Rd. It was found that this was impossible because the land right away could not be obtained.

The Grange will again retain a booth at the Frederick Fair. The committee in charge of the booth will be Richard Florence, chairman, William Wivell and George Gartrell.

Display committees are: green vegetables and canned produce, Mrs. Rachael Emerick; needlework, Mrs. William Wivell; fresh fruit, Mrs. Morris Zentz; small grain, Edgar Emerick; field crops, Raymond Baumgardner; hay, Harry Swomley; eggs, Morris Zentz; cookies, Mrs. Norman Six and Mrs. Ethel Baumgardner.

William Baker, chairman of the Community Show to be held October 22 and 23, made a full report on the activities planned for this affair. More details will be released on this event in the near future.

A film on anhydrous ammonia was shown to the group. After the meeting the juvenile Grange joined the parent group for refreshments served by the hostesses, Mrs. Rachael Emerick and Mrs. George Gartrell.

Although the length of the furrow varied in different jurisdictions in the past, its most common length was an eighth of a mile or one side of a square, 10-acre plot.

Don McKendrick, Delone High School quarterback, is shown being dropped with the ball during Friday's game with Gettysburg. Moving in as tacklers are Dick Stough, 23; Cloyd Spence, 57, and Merle Gorman, 25, all of Gettysburg.

NEVADA PRISON STAYS TENSE; GUARD SLAIN

tense mood hung over Nevada State Prison today as authorities sought to find out how a guard was killed during a reckless escape by three convicts—all recaptured within 10 hours yesterday.

"We are trying to get things back to normal," said Warden A. E. Bernard. He will question the three desperadoes about the death of guard George Miller, 59, taken as a hostage when the three convicts seized a milk truck he was driving through the yard. They forced him to smash open the rear gate with the truck.

Guards on high towers opened fire on the truck with rifles as it ran past two steel gates and disappeared along a dirt road. The truck was found later half a mile away from the prison.

Miller's body was hanging out an open door of the truck, a bullet through his head.

Chief of guards Harry Fletcher said Miller had not carried a gun and that the three convicts were unarmed when recaptured.

Bernard would not comment on how Miller got shot until he and Dist. Atty. Cameron Batjer complete their investigation.

TEN YEARS AGO

Waltmeyer—Wickey Nuptials Solennized In Washington: In a candlelight ceremony at 4:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in Luther Place Memorial church, Washington, D. C., Pfc. William C. Waltmeyer Jr., a senior at Temple University Medical school, and a son of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Waltmeyer, Springs avenue, and Miss Phyllis Cecile Wickey, daughter of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Gould Wickey, of Washington, were united in marriage.

The wedding ceremony was performed by the bride's father, assisted by the father of the bridegroom and the Rev. Ralph Tabor, pastor of Luther Place church. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Beatrice Tawney Weds A. C. Eberstaller: In a single ring ceremony performed Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church here by the pastor, the Rev. Howard S. Fox, Miss Beatrice Louise Tawney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry J. Tawney, New Oxford R. 1, formerly of Gettysburg, became the bride of Alfred Christian Eberstaller, son of Mrs. Mary Eberstaller, Elizabeth, New Jersey, and the late Christian Eberstaller.

Almost 1,500 Start School: Rain-laden skies greeted local school children as they went for their first session of the 1944-45 school year. Officials estimated grade school attendance at 1,114 with the count of high school pupils put at 1,173 in the county's boroughs.

In Gettysburg, the high school registered 550 pupils and the three elementary buildings reached a total of 673. There were 239 pupils at the High street school, 228 at Meade school on a 206 at the Lincoln building. Parochial attendance was estimated at 240.

8 Collection Points In Floss Drive Listed: The collection of milkweed floss for use in making life jackets of servicemen will be handled in Adams county through eight centers where the bags of floss gathered by thousands of Adams county school boys and girls, will be collected.

Sacks in which the floss is to be packed are being distributed to the school children. Each youngster will be paid 20 cents for each sack he fills.

With the source of kapok, the material usually used in life belts and jackets, in enemy hands for more than two years, military authorities have asked the school pupils to perform an important patriotic service by gathering the milkweed floss which can be used satisfactorily as a kapok substitute.

Robert Lefever Gets M.D. From Temple Thursday: Robert S. Lefever, son of Prof. G. W. Lefever, Gettysburg high school principal and Mrs. Lefever, East Broadway, received the degree of Doctor of Medicine at graduation exercises Thursday in the Baptist Temple in Philadelphia by the Temple university school of medicine.

At the same exercises Doctor Lefever received the reserve commission of first lieutenant in the Medical Corps of the U. S. Army.

Nazi Grenade Hit His Nose — Bounced: In the current issue of The Saturday Evening Post mention is made in an article titled "Their Escape Were Miracles" of the narrow escape from death Pvt. Guy Kump of Gettysburg had during fighting in France.

The Post article says that Kump "went to the hospital with a slightly scraped nose. When asked how he got it, he replied, 'Oh, a German hand grenade hit me there and bounced off into a foxhole before it exploded.'"

Rain Came Too Late For Crops: County Agent M. T. Hartman said today the rainfall was "too late to be of much help" to farmers. The corn, tomato and fruit crops already have suffered severely from the drought and that damage cannot now be repaired, he said.

Upper Communities: Miss Marian Thomas has returned to Wilson college to resume her studies after spending the summer at her home

Today's Talk

BE SERVICEABLE

I do not think we were put into this world just to serve ourselves, or to expect love or happiness for ourselves alone. Not until we put it to the test do we come to realize the significance of serviceableness—happily going out of our way to make someone else happy. If we make ourselves serviceable, humbly and without boast, it's like putting an extra deposit in the bank of Character.

John Ruskin applied this idea to books. He said: "No book is serviceable until it has been read and reread, and loved and loved again." The really great book is one that is not read and then tossed away, or discarded. There are books in my library that have been read and reread, but which somehow seem ever to be new. They are serviceable books and always will be.

In one of the small towns in which I once lived, in the Middle West, there was a woman whom I greatly loved because of her bigness of heart. She never did things to give herself advantages. She only thought of others. Day after day she was a woman of service, doing things for others, small things, big things, happy things. I could not detect a single strain of selfishness in her makeup. She had little money, but what she had she gave with no thought of any return. The only return that gave her joy was the return in personal happiness that was hers. People felt blessed just to pass her on the street, for her face was always wreathed in beauty.

Is there anything in life so worth while as to be serviceable? A friend of mine wrote an inspiring little book called "Try Giving Yourself Away." That's what serviceableness is — giving yourself away and thereby gaining spiritual wealth. When you do something kind or special for someone else, it doesn't matter if you don't get back a visible return. God sprinkles handfuls of gold in your heart!

FISH DINNER

There are many ways, no doubt, To prepare a dish of trout. But the best way isn't told. In a cook book, new or old. If of trout the meal's to be, Here's the finest recipe:

First select some shady trees; Stir them gentle with a breeze; Blend the ripple of a brook With the sizzle as you cook. If it's music you desire, Use the crackle of a fire.

Set the table, cup and plate For not more than seven or eight. Then to every boy and man From the steaming frying pan Flip a trout, and they'll agree That no finer meal could be.

Building Defense And Watching Cost

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—The military strength of the United States is being increased in a way that will give the nation the greatest security, and at the same time save the taxpayers money, Secretary of Defense Charles Wilson told an industrial meeting here last night.

"We have organized and do have great military strength—in the air, on and under the sea and on the land. I am confident that we can continue to maintain our national security without falling into national bankruptcy," Wilson told the crowd that packed a hotel ballroom.

His comments came three days after the administration announced a three billion dollar reduction in the defense spending budget for the fiscal year which began July 1. The budget is $41,900,000,000.

DELEGATESTOWN READY TO FIGHT RED CHINA'S BID

By WARREN ROGERS JR.

WASHINGTON (AP)—American officials are preparing for a one day, sudden death struggle over communist renewal next Tuesday of Red China's bid for U.N. membership.

The simple strategy, which has been effective in most of the 150 fruitless attempts by the Communists to unseat Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist delegates, will be to avoid a showdown vote on the issue. Instead, the fight is planned on a move to defer action.

A quick settlement of the perennial question would clear the way for policy statements next week and thus free Secretary of State Dulles in plenty of time for the proposed meeting in late September of nine countries on the question of German sovereignty and rearmament.

Dulles, now visiting Europe to confer with German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, has announced plans to attend the opening session Tuesday of the U.N. General Assembly, meeting the 60-nation assembly, probably Thursday.

America's new U.N. delegation, headed by Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., was called to the State Department today for swearing in exercises.

The five representatives and five alternates were briefed Thursday by State Department officials on what to expect. The usual attempt by Communist China to gain the seat now held by Nationalist China was forecast as the probable first clash between the free world and the Communists.

Red China's persistent attempts to win U.N. standing have resulted in 150 failures, counting committees of the U.N. Assembly as well as four tries in vain at each of the past four full sessions of the Assembly itself.

Members of this country's U.N. delegation, with Lodge as chairman, are Sens. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) and J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.), C. D. Jackson of New York City and Charles H. Mahoney of Detroit.

Alternate representatives: James Phillip Nash of Austin, Tex.; Ade M. Johnson of Tacoma, Wash.; Roger W. Straus and Mrs. Oswald B. Lord, both of New York City, and career diplomat James J. Wadsworth, who is deputy to Lodge.

STUDENT HELD IN FATAL CRASH

NEW BUFFALO, Pa. (AP)—A 25-year-old Miami University student was under arrest today in connection with an automobile accident in which a Harrisburg woman died.

Mrs. Orpha G. Yotey, 69, was struck and injured fatally by a car Thursday after she left a bus in this Perry County community.

Pvt. Albert A. Chatlick of the State Police, said the driver of the car was Jacob A. Calderon, Rochester, N. Y.

Calderon was being held in jail, in default of $2,000. He was charged by Chatlick with involuntary manslaughter.

Chatlick said Calderon was operating his car at a high rate of speed when the accident occurred. Mrs. Yotey was the wife of George A. Yotey, deputy treasurer of Dauphin County.

She was en route to visit friends in New Buffalo when she was struck. Calderon told police he was en route to Miami and school at the time of the accident.

POPE SUFFERS FROM FATIGUE

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII is suffering from fatigue caused by overwork but his condition is not causing serious concern, his private physician said Friday after visiting the pontiff.

Despite his fatigue, the Pope prepared to receive and address a medical conference at his summer residence at Castel Gandolfo. His physician, Prof. Riccardo Galeazzi-Lisi, described the pontiff's condition simply as fatigue due to a renewed heavy burden of work and denied he had had any recurrence of the hiccups during his grave illness early this year.

The Pope's physician denied also reports that the Swiss specialist, Dr. Paul Niehans, who attended the Pope in January and February, was again in Rome to help care for him.

The Pope's physician said that Dr. Niehans is in Switzerland. His doctor's visit this morning to the 78-year-old head of the Roman Catholic Church was described as a normal and regular visit.

Governor Wrestles Active Alligator

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Downright disrespectful alligator taught Gov. Lawrence Wetherby a lesson: It's easier to wrestle with politics than reptiles.

The governor was attending the Kentucky State Fair Thursday when he was invited to go one round with the 20-year-old, 8-foot, 175-pound critter, a feature of the water show.

After noting that the reptile's mouth was tied, Wetherby grabbed it under the chin and twisted. The alligator did a somersault, landed on its belly and began lashing out with its long tail. Forsaking dignity, the governor jumped.

SENTENCE 2 FOR FRAUD

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Two men today faced four-year prison sentences handed down in U. S. District Court here for conspiring to defraud the government.

Samuel Latorre, Wilkes-Barre, and Charles Parise, Canton, Ohio, were given the sentences Thursday by Judge Frederick V. Follmer. Parise also was fined $5,000 and Latorre received an additional sentence of five years probation.

Both men pleaded guilty July 8 on two counts of selling counterfeit money and conspiring to defraud the government.

In other action in Federal Court: Cecil C. Crafts, 58, former trust officer at the Williamsport National Bank, pleaded guilty to charges of embezzling $6,236 from the bank over a period of 12 years.

Follmer sentenced Crafts to a year and a day in prison. Richard W. Sigmund, 47, of Lock Haven, was given a two-year suspended sentence after he pleaded guilty to stealing $1,000 from the U. S. postal service at Lock Haven. George B. Shetrone, 27, of York, was put on 1½ years probation for impersonating a U. S. Army second lieutenant.

3 BOYS CAN'T LEAVE STATE

DETROIT (AP)—Dr. Kenneth B. Small, acquitted of murder in the slaying of his wife's suitor, Thursday obtained a court order restraining Mrs. Small from taking his three sons out of Michigan.

Morris J. Friedman, attorney for Dr. Small, said Circuit Judge Thomas J. Murphy has signed a temporary injunction restraining Edith Small, 30, from removing the children from jurisdiction of the court pending the outcome of divorce proceedings started last week by Mrs. Small.

The children are Steve, 7, Billy, 4, and Clifford, 3. Small was released from the Ionia State Hospital for the Criminally Insane, Sept. 8 by court order after he was declared sane. The Detroit dentist was acquitted of the slaying of Jies Lack, 45, a New York businesswoman.

Lack was shot when the dentist surprised him and Mrs. Small at a weekend rendezvous at a swank Lake Michigan cottage near Douglas, Mich.

Atomic Rays Stop Cancer In Infant

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A cancer in a six-months-old Salisbury, Md., boy has shrunk to about half its original size under treatments made possible by developments of atomic science. Doctors report he is making progress. Two weeks ago blindness, and eventual death, seemed imminent.

Today Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hickman have renewed hope their baby son, Ulysses, will live.

The parents made a choice two weeks ago. They told doctors at Lankenau Hospital here to go ahead with radiation treatments from the cobalt "bomb." The only alternative was removal of both eyes. Cancer already had destroyed one eye and was attacking the other.

STOWAWAY, 14 HOME WITH LEI

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — John Thomas Golden, 14, who stowed away on an airliner for a free ride to Hawaii, came home Thursday night wearing a gay floral lei as a memento of his trip.

His mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Marsh of San Jose, Calif., waited at the foot of the ramp, but apparently there will be no punishment.

"We ought to shoot him, but we haven't the heart to punish him now," said Mrs. Marsh with a smile.

John's return fare, $137, was paid by his parents. But when he left home Monday he had only $2.20. He spent all but 26 cents before he boarded a plane for Hawaii.

The boy didn't have much to say on his return, but he told newsmen in Honolulu he spent Monday night at San Francisco Airport.

When the Honolulu plane was called "I joined an old lady and escorted her through the gate where they collect tickets. I guess they thought she was my mother."

In Honolulu he went to a wireless company to radio his parents for money. An employee who sent the message gave him lodging, then turned him over to a welfare agency.

SCOUTING FOR INVASION CRAFT

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—Nationalist warplanes scouted coastal rivers along the China mainland opposite Formosa Friday, searching for concentrations of potential Communist invasion craft, the Defense Ministry announced.

Other planes teamed up with warships, the ministry said, to bombard for the 15th straight day Red fortifications in the vicinity of Quemoy, Nationalist island base seven miles off Amoy.

More than 100 Communist junks were destroyed by planes Thursday near Yungking, a mainland city 20 miles northeast of Quemoy, the ministry said.

A Nationalist warship on patrol fired at two Red gunboats near the Tachen Islands, 350 miles to the north, but the communists did not say whether hits were scored.

Warriors Top Delone 13-7 For First Win; Recovered Fumble Sets Up Winning TD

Capitalizing on a recovered fumble on the Delone five-yard line midway in the final period, the Gettysburg High School football team gained its first victory of the season by eking out a hard-fought 13-7 decision over Delone Catholic here Friday evening before approximately 2,800 fans.

Merle Gorman, Warrior end, pounced on the Squire fumble to set the stage for the winning tally. Two plays later Dick Stough, a brilliant ball-toter throughout the evening, went over from the two-yard mark. The Delone forward wall broke through to block Don Smith's placement for the point.

The two squads staged a typical Gettysburg-Delone contest and there was little to choose between them. Gettysburg's initial score came just 17 seconds after the second period got underway following a 49-yard drive which began late in the first period.

Williams Races Over
The Warriors took possession of the ball when Captain Buddy Redding of Delone punted to Stough. After a pass fell incomplete, Ronnie Williams picked up eight yards around right end. Fred Furney smacked the line for a yard and Glenn Weishaar bucked for a first down on the 36. Joe Tonsel reeled off another first down on the 23 via a sweep around left end.

A Gettysburg aerial fell incomplete to open the second period and on the next play Ronnie Williams swept wide around right end and streaked the remaining distance to hit pay dirt. Smith converted on a perfect placement.

The battling squires came right back and knotted the count just two and one-half minutes later.

Greenholt Tallies
A brilliant pass, Carroll Funk to Joe Poist, who took the ball at mid-field and raced to the Gettysburg 13 two plays after the kickoff, set the stage for the Squire tally. Dan Greenholt blasted his way for eight yards and John Washington picked up four more and a first down on the 1. Greenholt barely hit the end zone on a quarterback sneak. Redding booted the tying point on a placement.

There was no scoring in the third period but two Warrior interceptions of Delone passes took place, the last of which paved the way for a scoring threat. The first interception was by Cloyd Spence on the Gettysburg 44. Two plays later Tom Smith of Delone pounced on a Warrior fumble to give the Squires the ball on the Gettysburg 35. The Delone threat ended when Stough snared a Squire aerial and ran back 10 yards to his 33.

Exchange Fumbles
With Tonsel, Furney and Stough bearing the brunt of the ball-toting the locals rolled up three straight first downs to reach the visitors' 7. Delone arose to the occasion, tossed Weishaar back on the 20 on an attempted pass, and eventually took over on a last-down fumble when Greenholt recovered on the 3. Attempting to run the ball out of danger, the Squires fumbled with Gorman making his all-important recovery on the 5 to lead to the winning six-pointer.

Late in the game Staley got off a beautiful punt for Gettysburg that rolled dead on the Squires' 3. Delone moved the ball out to the 17 but Spence made his second interception of the evening at that point and two plays later the game was history.

In registering their fifth straight win in the 14-game series with their rivals from McSherrystown, the Warriors played much improved ball over their first performance a week ago. Stough, Tonsel, Williams and Furney turned in some fine ball-toting with Weishaar directing the club in satisfactory manner. Up front Bonduant, Joe Dearing, Gorman, Westerdahl, Weaver, Staley and Bushman played well.

Delone's honors were captured by Redding, Greenholt and Washington with contributions from the line by Jude Smith and Burnell Bevenour.

Carlisle Here Friday
Next Friday the Warriors open their South Penn Conference season by playing host to Carlisle, 20-6 victors over Chief Logan Friday night.

Delone invades Scotland next Saturday. The Cadets laced Chambersburg 32-0 Friday.

Bands of both schools put on fine half-time exhibitions here Friday evening, the Gettysburg band specializing in precision marching.

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—The Eastern League playoff final moved into Hawkins Stadium today with the host Senators and the Reading Indians all square at a game apiece.

The Indians, who finished fourth in regular season play, evened the best-of-seven series last night by administering a 7-1 scalping to the Albany men in the Reading wigwam.

The first game, also played at Reading, went to the Senators, 5-2.

ALABAMA UPSET BY MISSISSIPPI SOUTHERN 25-19

By TED MEIER
NEW YORK (AP)—Just about the time Rocky Marciano was putting the zing to Ezzard Charles in their heavyweight title bout at Yankee Stadium last night, Mississippi Southern ushered in the 1954 football season with a knockout of its own.

On the same gridiron in Montgomery, Ala., where they started collegiate circles last year by upsetting Alabama, 25-19, Dixie's newest Cinderella eleven did it again to the Crimson Tide. This time the score was 7-2.

The surprise triumph over an Alabama team, that rolled up 16 first downs to 3 and gained 198 yards by rushing to 81, overshadowed Stanford's 13-12 squeeze over College of Pacific and Southern California's 39-0 rom over Washington State.

Mississippi Wins
Mississippi's 35-12 drubbing of North Texas State and Denver's 72-0 route of Colorado College also took a back seat.

Mississippi Southern, self-styled the "most underrated team in football," capitalized on an Alabama bad pass to score a touchdown in the first period.

Bobby Luna, back to punt on 4th down, dropped the errant pass from center, and Southern took over on the Tide 28. Four plays later Brooks Tisdale ran 17 yards for the TD and booted the extra point.

Thereafter Southern dug in and turned back all threats. Alabama scored on a safety in the last period when tackle Doug Potts blocked George Herring's punt and the ball rolled into the end zone.

Stanford came from behind to nip OOP. The Indians trailed 6-12 with four minutes left, but drove 76 yards in eight plays for the tying touchdown with Bill Tarr bucking over from the two. John Brodie ran wide around right end for the winning extra point.

Jim Contratto, a senior south-paw quarterback starting his first game, led USC to its Pacific Coast Conference triumph over Washington State.

Contratto threw three long touchdown passes to give the Trojans a 20-0 halftime lead, more than enough to rout State. The first TD came in the first period on a pass to Lindon Crow, the play covering 80 yards.

Mississippi, ranked 10th in the Associated Press pre-season poll, yielded a first-quarter touchdown to North Texas then easily slapped down the Texans.

Rocky Marciano Keeps Title With Eighth Round Kayo Over Charles; Cockell, Valdes Next

By MURRAY ROSE
NEW YORK (AP)—Ezzard Charles has gone the way of the other 40 of heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano's knockout victims and now it looks like either England's Don Cockell or Cuba's Nino Valdes will get the next chance to test the unbeaten Brockton Blaster's dynamite.

"Cockell on Valdes—the one who brings the most money—is next," said Manager Al Weill. Rocky nodded his head.

"It's the same to me," said Marciano as Dr. Alexander Schiff bandaged a nasty cut on the tip of his nose and patched a ½-inch cut on his left brow.

No More This Year
"But he ain't going to go any more this year," said Weill. "Rocky will need plastic surgery to fix that cut on his nose. February? Maybe. We'll see. First we gotta leave at 4 p.m. today for Los Angeles. Rocky's on that comedy hour Sunday with Eddie Fisher. Then we gotta consider a movie offer, a job in Las Vegas, and a European refereeing tour. For fighting next, we're going international—Cockell or Valdes."

Rocky really has to look abroad for his next opponent for his eight-round knockout of Charles last night wiped out his last major challenger in the U.S. The 33-year-old Charles, making an unprecedented third bid to become the first ex-champion to regain the title, went down for the full count at 2:36 after absorbing a withering barrage from the bleeding and beserk Bomber.

Down for the second time in the round and for the third time in the one-sided tussle that lacked the drama of their June original, Charles just managed to get on his feet after Referee Al Meri had tolled "ten."

"Could Have Gone On"
There were many in the crowd of 34,330 at Yankee Stadium who thought that Ezzard could have beaten the count if he had given it the real college try but the galling champion said "I don't think so. He was dazed."

"It was groggy but I still had my senses," said Charles, who was virtually unmarked and looked more like the winner than the loser. "My gloves weren't touching the floor. I could have gone on fighting if they had let me. I think in two rounds I would have beat him. He was cut pretty bad."

Maybe Ezzard's handlers thought so too, but nobody else did. This wasn't like their suspenseful first night three months ago when Charles got off to a big lead, chopped a wide gash over Rocky's left eye in the fourth, and had a chance to win as late as the 14th round.

This was a one-way battle after the first round. Charles tossed left hooks and short rights to win the

WOMEN'S MATCH IN FINALS TODAY

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Two of the youngest—and probably the prettiest—girls ever to play in a final match for the United States Women's Amateur golf title met today in an all-California final.

They are perit, 21-year-old Barbara Romack of Sacramento and tall, 19-year-old Mary Kathryn (Mickey) Wright of LaJolla, survivors of a talent-packed field of 145 that started play Monday and winners of a notably lopsided pair of semifinal matches.

What's more, they've played some of the week's best golf on the tight but tricky Allegheny Country Club course in suburban Sewickley. A women's par of 36-73 was established for the tournament over the hilly 6,034-yard course.

Miss Wright shot one-over-par golf for 14 holes to eliminate the defending champion, Mary Lena Faulk of Thomasville, Ga., 5 and 4. Miss Romack was one under par for 12 holes to crush Mrs. Marjorie Lindsay McMillen of Decatur, Ill., 7 and 6.

Right To The Heart
The second round was the key one according to Marciano and co-trainers Charley Goldman and Alie Colombo.

"It was a right to the heart that did it," said the 30-year-old king. "I could hear him grunt. I knew I had him then and it was just a matter of time. I figured I'd get him before the 10th. After that shot to the heart, I dropped him with a right-left-right combination. A right dropped him first in the eighth and then I gave him the same right-left-right combination to stop him."

Protest Dropped In SP Playoffs

Wenksville dropped its protest on the league's decision of having a flip of the coin decide the second and third places for the South Penn Baseball League playoffs. It was announced at the league meeting Friday evening at the American Legion home.

Playoffs will continue as planned, with Mummansburg meeting Wenksville at Bendersville Sunday and Taneytown playing at Greenmount in second round games.

It was decided to hold a meeting at the conclusion of the playoffs when trophies and a pennant will be awarded, and officers elected.

Chester Shriver, secretary-treasurer, presided at the meeting in the absence of other officers.

Avila's Bases-Loaded Homer Clinches At Least Tie For Tribe; Braves Stay In Race; Nip Cards

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

Bobby Avila's stock rose to new heights today in the race for the most valuable player in the American League.

The peppy Cleveland second baseman, almost a shoo-in for the batting title, made himself personally responsible for at least a share in the pennant with a grand slam home run in Detroit last night.

The blast gave the Indians their eighth straight victory and made certain they will still be in first place on the last day of the season.

Yanks Maul A's
Avila made the difference since the final score was 6-3 and the count was even at 2-2 when he came to bat with the bases loaded in the seventh.

It was quite a day for Avila. Before the game he bought a ball club, the Mexico City entry in the Mexican Winter League. Avila said it cost him "mucho pesos."

The Yankees were making what probably will be their last visit to Philadelphia when the bad news came in from Detroit. They had just mauled the hapless Athletics 10-3 for their 98th victory. They'll probably win more than 100 games, something no other runner-up ever has done in the American League.

Leaders Lose, Braves Win
In the National League the New York Giants and the Brooklyn Dodgers were beaten but Milwaukee prolonged its faint chance with a 6-4 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Giants bowed to Robin Roberts and the Philadelphia Phillies 4-3. Brooklyn committed five errors in losing to last place Pittsburgh 9-1 in the Dodgers' worst game of the year.

In other action the Baltimore Orioles defeated Chicago 5-1 on two-run home runs by Bob Kennedy and Chuck Diering and Dean Stone of the Senators backed up his own three-hitter with a three-run homer as Washington swamped Boston 8-0.

21 For Roberts
Lefty Tommy Byrne checked the Athletics on eight hits and drove in three of the Yankee runs with two doubles and a single.

A single by Del Ennis with one out and the bases loaded ruined Johnny Antonelli's bid for his 22nd victory. Roberts picked up No. 21 as he held the league leaders to seven hits. Stan Lopata homered with one aboard for the Phils.

Max Surkont gave the Dodgers only five hits and the jittery Brooks beat themselves with their five errors in the first four innings.

Brooklyn trails New York by 4½ games and Milwaukee is 6½ back. The Giants have eight to play, the Dodgers seven and the Braves nine.

Jack Britton and Ted (Kid) Lewis is fought each other 20 times from March, 1915 to Feb., 1921. Lewis won three, Britton won four, two were draws and 11 were "no decision" bouts.

WILLIE TROY STOPS CARTIER IN 6TH ROUND

WASHINGTON (AP)—"Let me at 'em."

That's what a relaxed Willie Troy said last night after he had stopped Walter Cartier at 1:24 of the sixth round of their scheduled 10-round nationally telecast fight.

"Olson, Mims, Giardello. Bring 'em on," Willie said gleefully. Chances are Troy will get his wish with one of these three in the near future off his performance against Cartier.

The 22-year-old Troy, who weighed 159, overcame some early confusion at Cartier's storming tactics to knock the 160-pound Brooklyn veteran flat on his back with a wicked right cross.

Blood coursing from his nose, Cartier scrambled to his feet at the count of eight but Referee Harry Volkman stopped the fight and awarded Troy the bout on a technical knockout. It was the 22nd kayo in Troy's 30 fights.

Willie has lost twice, to Holly Mims, a fellow Washingtonian, and Joey Giardello of Philadelphia. Both were knockouts. Troy has been demanding return matches ever since.

Inner Tubes Play Big Role In Life Expectancy Of Tires; Better Grade Tubes Make Wise Selection

By FREDERICK C. RUSSELL

A good rule to remember is that if you check your brakes they'll check you.

Accent On Tubes
It is an odd commentary on today's thinking, or lack of it, that so much attention is paid to tires and so little to the inner tubes used with them. Yet the tubes play a big role in the life expectancy of the tires themselves and, carelessly selected, may more than offset the advantages of premium tires.

Not many motorists appear to realize that without going into the question of self-sealing tubes it is a simple matter to select a heavier inner tube instead of using the general run of tubes which are not so secure against damage from foreign matter inside the tire and rim cutting. Such better grade tubes have a lot more rubber in them, but do not cost a lot more. Especially unwise is using old tubes with new tires, or even fairly new but not top quality tubes.

Vapor Lock Broken
When his engine quit on a recent trip one owner thought he had solved the mystery because when he removed the fuel filter element everything became normal again. Naturally he assumed that the element had loaded up with gummy deposits and had blocked the flow of fuel to the carburetor. But on closer inspection he was surprised to find that the element was quite clean and could not possibly have blocked fuel flow.

At the service station they explained to him that the trouble had been vapor lock, not filter clogging. When he took off the filter bowl he broke the vapor lock. In other words, the engine would have started off again even if it had put the element back into the filter.

Takes Out The Stall
Wherever automobiles are discussed in detail you will be hearing much about concentric carburetion. Sounds very technical, but actually it merely means that fuel is fed to the throat of the carburetor from the center line of the float bowl instead of at one side.

This automatically prevents the fuel from being forced into the throat during quick deceleration or sudden acceleration, and thus stalling the motor with fuel indigestion.

With the fuel intakes (jets) in the center line of the carburetor there isn't the usual spillage during these abrupt changes in car speed, and a more uniform action of the motor is obtained.

Mechanic Joe Speaking:
"In my experience with cars I have ceased to be fooled by faulty fuel pumps which have a way of fooling us into thinking there is something wrong with the engine. One of the common tricks is for a pump to give out a noise similar to a piston slap. This is always a sure sign that the pump is about ready to give up the ghost."

Re-check Those Fuses
If you want to be assured continued service from the car's auxiliary lights, heater, radio and any other electrical accessories always carry along spare fuses of the right capacity for the various installations. On my wife's car there are extra clips on the fuse block for keeping the spares ready for immediate service as needed. Her car uses a circuit breaker for the headlights, but where the car's main lighting circuit is through a fuse some spares of this higher capacity are important.

New Way To Save
How power steering saves gasoline is something that has not yet come in for attention, even though it should be obvious that the less fuses we have to make about parking the less fuel we waste. With power assistance you now can get into a tight parking space with a minimum of movement. The time element is reduced considerably, allowing the engine a much shorter operation period. Also it has been found that your chances of having to give up trying to get into a space are greatly lessened. Too often when the parking job seems too complicated for comfort the driver starts off again in search of another spot and may have to go several blocks before he finds something.

JUST BORN THAT WAY—Scratchy, cross-eyed cat owned by John Miklas of Indianapolis, can chase insects in the yard and get away from dogs as well as any normal feline.

Washers On Strike
Has the windshield washer become useless? Don't be surprised if the trouble is due merely to the small holes at the outlets becoming clogged with road dirt. They are quite small and are thus easily clogged. Other causes of failure are leakage of vacuum through loose or rotted rubber connections, and insufficient washer fluid in the reserve tank.

It is surprising how the matter of the brake drums will be overlooked by owners trying to find out why their cars pull to one side or the other when applying the brakes. It never occurs to them that a new car can have a warped or a scored drum. This can happen, however, if the brakes have been misused as is quite possible during pre-delivery handling. Overbraking a slow car speed is especially damaging.

Bruises Bring Blowouts
Rough roads are highly damaging to all but the most highly advanced tires, but comparatively few motorists appreciate that such rough going for the rubber accounts for many a pinched inner tube. The smart caper is to look over the tires periodically, and if there is evidence that one of them has struck a stone or the sharp edge of a chuck hole the tire should be dismantled to see if the inner wall has been damaged.

Talking with a mechanic who was about to sell his old car I noticed that he stressed the fact that the body showed a minimum of rust spots. Such areas, he pointed out, are always evidence of neglect. As he indicated by one particular area that had got the better of him, rust is especially apt to develop where body parts are put together, and at the door sills.

What's Your Trouble?
Q. The spark plugs were very oily when I checked them today. Is this a sure sign that the engine is pumping oil because of worn piston rings? J. L. R.
A. This is a likely possibility, but first check for a broken diaphragm in the vacuum booster pump of the fuel pump.
Q. What is the normal breaker arm spring tension? W. L. K.
A. Be sure you get the specific instructions for your particular make and model car. This should run from 18 to 22 ounces.

Q. I am having trouble with the steering on my car. Whenever I am slowing down for a stop there is a marked tendency for the car to pull to the right. I insisted on a front-end alignment check-up but this hasn't helped. K. R. McB.
A. As I point out in my CAR CARE book this is a braking problem, not one of steering. The right brake isn't working normally.

Q. What can be done with weak front-end springs other than a replacement? Wm. L. G.
A. You can use spacers at the base of the springs or special rubber boosters which fit into the coils to prevent bottoming and to give greater stability.

Q. I have been having considerable trouble with the engine stalling. Have also been complaining about the car creeping whenever I have stopped for a traffic light and am waiting with the selector lever in the "drive" position. Do you think this trouble is due to vapor lock? I have tried different brands of gasoline without any observable difference. D. L.
A. This is not a vapor lock situation. Because you have been complaining about creeping with your automatic transmission the chances are that the engine speed is merely set for too slow idle. It is difficult in many cases to strike exactly the happy medium. I think the lesser of the two annoyances is creeping because you can always check this by holding your foot lightly on the accelerator pedal.

Q. How much gasoline should flow from the fuel pump when this unit is operating normally? The engine of my car is a big one. L. R. T.
A. For large engines the pump should be able to deliver a pint in 30 seconds. Just for the record on a small engine delivery of one pint in 60 seconds is considered satisfactory.

Q. I have been troubled with oil getting into the clutch housing and this probably means that I am due for some work on the rear motor main bearing or its oil control. Before delving into this however I'd like to have your views. L. G. B.
A. The oil may be getting into the clutch through the flywheel mounting bolts. Some mechanics apply gasket material to the bolts or studs.

Mr. Russell will answer questions regarding the safe care and operation of your car. Just address him at 254 Fern St., West Hartford 7, Conn., and enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope for a personal reply. There is no charge.
